I've always wanted to sing, but do I have to do it alone in front of a bunch of people?

I love music! Are there other kids that do too?

I've heard so much about the Savannah Children's Choir. How do I join?

My friend went to Camp last year and had so much fun! How do I register?

Is it true they're putting on a play?

Summer Camp

Singers are Storytellers!

No, you won't be asked to sing alone, unless you want to, of course! You'll feel comfortable singing with a large group of kids!

Sing alone?

You'll be in a small class with other kids your age, and everyone in your class (and in the whole camp) loves music! By the end of the two-week camp, you'll have made great new friends and improved your music skills too!

Other Kids?

If you're interested in joining the Savannah Children's Choir, Summer Camp is how! In addition to being a fun camp, the program also serves as the annual audition into the Choir.

How do I join?

From interesting classes taught by dynamic instructors, to daily rehearsals and afternoon concerts, to getting ready for an End of Camp performance, the fun never stops!

So much fun!

Summer Camp will end with a fully staged musical! For those kids who like singing & dancing & acting, this is the Summer Camp for you!

A play?

Boring Stuff for your Parents

Parents, by the end of Summer Camp, your child will be able to sing alone and with others in tune, following a variety of directors, performing a wide range of repertoire.

They'll be able to keep a steady beat, read and create rhythmic notation, and read music using a method called "solfege" so they can study music at home, even without an instrument!

Your child will understand music as it relates to culture and history, be able to work as a team and follow specific directions.

Finally, if invited to join the SCC at the end of Summer Camp, your child will be prepared for the rigors of SCC rehearsal and performance year.

About Summer Camp

Summer Camp is open to all kids with an interest in music and singing, entering 2nd - 8th grades in Fall 2012.

The camp is one of the signature educational programs of the SCC, and pairs talented college instructors earning advanced degrees in music education and related fields with musically interested children.

The two-week, full day camp offers daily instruction in music history, theory, dance, movement, and sight singing. Each day also features group choral time, a daily concert or lecture, play time and healthy snacks. SCC's Summer Camp also provides full-time on-site nursing staff to keep kids healthy and safe.

Is your child not quite ready for Summer Camp? Try Mini-Camp, a one-week, half-day experience for 4-7 year olds who might not be up to a full day camp. Mini-Campers also perform in the End of Camp show!
